S. No. 332

81.6.2.1.118: ju

Introduced by SENATOR PIA S. CAYETANO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The United Nations, in which the Philippines is a founding member, has established November 20 of each year as the Universal Children's Day, with one hundred forty nine member countries observing the day for forty one years now.

In a country like the Philippines where the struggle for peace and prosperity is felt and suffered most by children, a single-minded and concerted effort to create a "children's rights culture" has to be made.

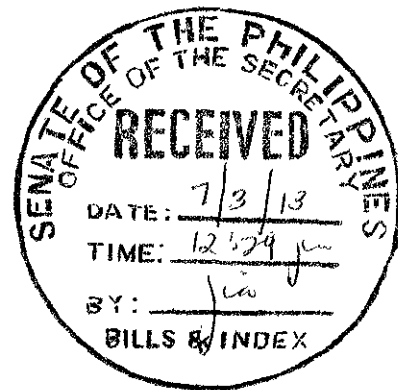

This bill, if enacted into law, will make November 20 a national holiday and will be known as the National Children's Day to coincide with the United Nations' Universal Children's Day. This will give Filipino families a day of each year to celebrate and have appreciation for the rights of our children.

For these reason, approval of this Bill is urgently sought.
