EXPLANATORY NOTE

As the link between the officers' corps and the enlisted personnel, the Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) Sergeant Major is the most important adviser of the Chief of Staff on matters of discipline and morale of the troops.

There is a need to make him distinct for him to gain respect as well as to dignify his role as the model of morale and discipline. To achieve this, he must have a higher pay grade rank than the other Sergeant Majors of subordinate commands of the AFP. This will thus ensure that his authority and responsibility are distinct and that a commensurate privilege is bestowed upon his position.

In essence, this bill seeks to create the rank of First Chief Master Sergeant/First Master Chief Petty Officer (E-10) for the enlisted personnel with the highest rank both in position and grade – the AFP Command Sergeant Major.

Moreover, and perhaps as important, this bill will rationalize the pay grade of both the officers corps and the enlisted personnel because, while the officers have ten pay grades or ranks from Second Lieutenant/Ensign (O-1) to General/Admiral (O-10), the enlisted personnel only has nine from Private (E-1) to Chief Master Sergeant/Master Chief Petty Officer (E-9). This bill will translate to an equal number of ranks to which a soldier may aspire for promotion.

In view of the foregoing, passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
