

5 police officials get medals, promotions for heroic deeds in Marawi

By CHITO A. CHAVEZ

The National Police Commission (Napolcom) has conferred the Medalya ng Kabayanihan (Distinguished Conduct Medal) to five police officials and confirmed the special promotion of 57 police personnel for their meritorious performance during the Marawi City siege on May 23, 2017.

In the performance of their sworn duties, they risked their lives and limbs when they battled the terrorists Maute Group, Abu Sayyaf Group (ASG) and other lawless elements during deliberate attack on the city.

Napolcom Vice Chairman and Executive Officer Atty. Rogelio T. Casurao issued the announcement after the commission en banc approved Resolution No. 2019-340 which conferred the PNP Distinguished Conduct Medal on the five police officials, namely, PSupt (PLTCOL) Rex Arvin T. Malimban, PSupt (PLTCOL) Lambert A. Suerte, PSupt (PLTCOL) Jack Echman A. Angog, PSupt (PLTCOL) Mario L. Mayames Jr. and PSupt (PLTCOL) Ledon D. Monte.

The medals were given in "recognition of their conspicuous courage and gallantry in the face of armed enemies, where they performed the most crucial role as leaders and commanders of the Special Action Force (SAF) troopers during the Marawi City Crisis."

Napolcom also approved

Resolution No. 2019-360 confirming the special promotion to the next higher rank of the 57 PNP personnel following the recommendation made by PNP Chief Police General Oscar D. Albayalde.

The recommendation was for "the grant of the meritorious promotion for demonstrating acts of conspicuous courage and gallantry in action at the risk of their lives above and beyond the call of duty when the ISIS-inspired Local Terrorist Groups (LTGs) led by Isnilon Hapilon and brothers Abdullah and Omar Maute executed their plans to establish a 'Caliphate' in Marawi City to gain recognition and support from foreign terrorists."

Casurao said the police contingents were able to gain ground in every target given during the offensive and the ensuing building by building clearing operations.

Their heroic acts resulted in the neutralization of 920 LTGs including their leaders, Hapilon and the Maute Brothers; the rescue of 1,777 hostages; and the recovery of 479 units of assorted high-powered firearms, several rounds of ammunition, and ordnance and improvised explosive devices (IEDs).

"The courage displayed by these valiant police officers earned for themselves not only the admiration of the members of the PNP but also of the people they had sworn to serve," Casurao said.

Hontiveros welcomes law penalizing catcalling

By MARIO B. CASAYURAN

Opposition Senator Risa Hontiveros welcomed yesterday the lapsing into law of a bill that penalizes catcalling, wolf-whistling and other forms of gender-based street harassment against women and members of the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) community.

Hontiveros described this development as a "massive victory" and a "major push back" against what she called the country's "growing bastos culture."

This is a big victory and a major push back against the growing "bastos culture" in our streets and communities, she said.

"Now, women and LGBTs have a strong policy instrument to protect us from gender-based street harassment. With this law, we will reclaim our streets from sexual harassers and gender bigots and make public spaces safe for all," Hontiveros said.

Hontiveros, chairwoman of the Senate Committee on Women, said the law is not only for women and LGBTs.

She said the law also protects men from sexist acts and behavior.

CAAP remits highest-ever dividend of ₱3.5 billion

PASAY CITY — The Civil Aviation Authority of the Philippines (CAAP) remitted ₱3.5 billion in dividends to the national government in 2018, its highest ever.

CAAP, a member of the "Billionaires' Club," an elite circle of Government-Owned and Controlled Corporations (GOCC) that remit billions, has a computed dividend payable of ₱958.5 million for 2018.

However, the state aviation authority reported an excess cash of ₱2.55 billion, and deemed it appropriate to increase the dividend payment to ₱3.5 billion while still maintaining economic viability.

The fiscal performance of CAAP has markedly improved under the Duterte administration. Under the previous administration, CAAP refused to remit dividends from 2011 to 2015, arguing that under Republic Act No. 9497, or the Civil Aviation Authority Act of 2008, it has full fiscal autonomy.

However, through Department of Transportation (DOT) Secretary Arthur P. Tugade's strong sense of fiscal accountability, CAAP under the Duterte administration started remitting to the national government.

For fiscal year 2017, it paid ₱6.2 billion in dividends, topping the list among state-owned agencies under the Department of Transportation (DOT) that remitted the highest amount of dividends.

In 2018, the agency performed even better with a notable growth of around ₱280 million in net income.

SECTION 16. Reportorial Requirement. — The grantee shall submit an annual report to the Congress of the Philippines, through the Committee on Legislative Franchises of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Public Services of the Philippine Senate, on its compliance with the terms and conditions of the franchise and on its operations on or before April 30 of the succeeding year.
