Alsons, Thai firm form joint venture

By TED P. TORRES

Alsons Consolidated Resources Inc. (ACRI) has formed a joint venture with one of Thailand's major power generating companies.

Known as Conal Holdings Corp., the new company will have an initial capital of $60 million. ACRI will control 60 percent of the firm while Electric Generating Public of Thailand (EGCO) will control the remaining 40 percent.

The main assets of Conal Holdings will be diesel-fired power plants located in Iligan, Zamboanga and Gen. Santos City.

The three power plants have a combined generating capacity of 253-megawatts (MW).

The Iligan plant, operated by the Northern Mindanao Power Corp. (NMPCC), has two plants which have a combined capacity of 103 MW. It has a power purchase agreement (PPA) with the National Power Corp. (Napocor) for 10 years starting December 1992.

The Western Mindanao Power Corp. (WMPC) runs the 100-MW Zamboanga plant which likewise feeds its generated power to Napocor under an 18-year PPA starting Dec. 1997.

The General Santos City diesel-fired power plant has a generating capacity of 50 MW and it is run by the Southern Philippines Power Corp.

Joseph C. Nocos, business development manager for the Alcantara Group, said Conal Holdings will be bidding for Napocor assets that will be privatized.

The new company will be making a stronger bid to supply "clean" power to manufacturing companies, such as those in the information technology sector, the semi-conductor sector and other energy-sensitive manufacturing companies.
