AN ACT INSTITUTING POLICIES FOR THE PROTECTION AND WELFARE OF CAREGIVERS IN THE PRACTICE OF THEIR PROFESSION

*Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines
in Congress assembled:*

1           SECTION 1. Short Title. – This Act shall be known as the “Caregivers
2   Welfare Act”.

3           SEC. 2. Declaration of Policy. – It is hereby declared the policy of 4   the State to recognize the role of caregivers in national development and to 5   institute policies in the practice of the profession with the end in view of 6   developing competent caregivers whose standards of professional service
7   shall be excellent and globally competitive.

8           The State also recognizes the need to protect the rights of the caregivers 9   towards a decent employment and income, and adheres to a policy of 10   protecting caregivers against abuse, harassment, violence and economic 11   exploitation.

12          SEC. 3. Definition of Terms. – As used in this Act:

13          (a) Caregiver refers to a graduate of a caregiving course from an 14   accredited training institution that is recognized by the government, or is

1 certified competent by that same institution, and renders caregiving services
2 as stipulated in Section 6 of this Act;

3 (b) Client refers to an infant, child or dependent adult;

4 (c) Employer refers to any person who engages and controls the 5 services of a caregiver and is a party to the employment contract; and

6 (d) Private employment agency (PEA) refers to any individual,
7 legitimate partnership, corporation or entity licensed to engage in the 8 recruitment and placement of caregivers for local employment.

9 SEC. 4. Employment Contract. – An employment contract shall be 10 executed by and between the caregiver and the employer before the 11 commencement of the service in a language or dialect understood by both 12 parties. A copy of the duly signed employment contract shall be given to the 13 caregiver which shall include the following:

14 (a) Duties and responsibilities of the caregiver;

15 (b) Period of employment;

16 (c) Compensation;

17 (d) Authorized deductions;

18 (e) Hours of work and proportionate additional payment;

19 (f) Rest days and allowable leaves;

20 (g) Board, lodging and medical attention;

21 (h) Termination of employment; and

22 (i) Any other lawful condition agreed upon by both parties.

23 The Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) shall develop a 24 model employment contract for caregivers which shall be made available at 25 all times, free of charge to caregivers, employers and the general public.

26 In case where the employment of the caregiver is facilitated through a
27 private employment agency, the PEA shall keep a copy of all employment

1 contracts of their caregivers which shall be made available for verification and 2 inspection by the DOLE.

3 SEC. 5. Preemployment Requirements. – Prior to the execution of the 4 employment contract, the employer may require the following:

5 (a) Caregivers training certificate issued by the school or institution
6 accredited by the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority
7 (TESDA);

8 (b) Medical certificate or health certificate issued by a local 9 government health officer; and

10 (c) Barangay and police clearance.

11 SEC. 6. Duties of the Caregivers. – The caregiver may provide any of 12 the following services:

13 (a) Provide personal care support and assistance to clients with 14 physical impairment or disabilities in private homes, nursing or geriatric care
15 facilities, and other residential setting;

16 (b) Help clients with their daily activities and mobility restrictions;

17 (c) Provide some basic health-related services, such as checking the 18 clients' pulse rate, temperature and respiration rate;

19 (d) Help clients with simple prescribed exercises and assist them with 20 home medications as prescribed by the physician;

21 (e) Advise families and patients on cleanliness and household tasks;

22 (f) Accompany clients to appointments with doctors or on other
23 errands;

24 (g) Assist in housekeeping tasks for the clients; and 25 (h) Some other tasks depending on the needs of the clients.

26 SEC. 7. Hours of Work. – The caregiver's working hours shall be 27 based on the employment contract signed by the parties and in accordance 28 with the labor laws, rules and regulations. The caregiver shall be entitled to an

1 aggregate daily rest period of eight (8) hours per day and at least twenty-four 2 (24) hours of rest in a week. The employer shall respect the preference of the 3 caregiver as to the weekly rest day when such preference is based on religious 4 grounds.

5 SEC. 8. Minimum Wage. – The minimum wage of a caregiver shall 6 not be less than the following:

7 (a) Seven thousand pesos (P7,000.00) a month for those employed in 8 the National Capital Region (NCR);

9 (b) Five thousand five hundred pesos (P5,500.00) a month for those 10 employed in chartered cities and first class municipalities; and 11 (c) Four thousand pesos (P4,000.00) a month for those employed in 12 other municipalities.

13 One (1) year after the effectivity of this Act and, periodically thereafter,
14 the Regional Tripartite Wages and Productivity Board (RTWPB) shall review
15 and adjust the minimum wage rates for caregivers.

16 SEC. 9. Payment of Wages. – Wages shall be paid on time directly to 17 the caregiver to whom they are due once every two (2) weeks or twice a 18 month at the intervals not exceeding sixteen (16) days. The employer, unless 19 allowed by the caregiver through a written consent, shall make no deductions
20 from the wages other than what is mandated by law. No employer shall pay 21 the wages of the caregiver by means of promissory notes, vouchers, coupons, 22 tokens, tickets, chits, or any object other than the cash wage as provided for 23 under the law.

24 They are also entitled to a Thirteenth-month pay as provided for by law.

25 SEC. 10. Pay Slip. – The employer shall at all times provide the 26 caregiver with a copy of the pay slip containing the amount paid in cash every 27 pay day and indicating all deductions made, if any. A copy of the pay slip 28 shall be kept by the employer for a period of three (3) years.

1           SEC. 11. Leave Benefits. – A caregiver who has rendered at least one
2 (1) year of service shall be entitled to an annual service incentive leave of five
3 (5) days with pay. Any unused portion of the annual leave shall not be 4 cumulative or carried over to the succeeding years. Unused leaves shall not be 5 convertible to cash.

6           SEC. 12. Other Benefits. – A caregiver who has rendered at least one 7 (1) month of service shall be covered by the Social Security System (SSS), the 8 Philippine Health Insurance Corporation (PhilHealth), and the Home
9 Development Mutual Fund or Pag-IBIG, and shall be entitled to all the 10 benefits in accordance with the pertinent provisions provided by law.

11           Premium payments or contributions shall be shouldered by the 12 employer. However, if the caregiver is receiving a wage of five thousand 13 pesos (P5,000.00) and above per month, the caregiver shall pay the 14 proportionate share in the premium payments or contributions, as provided by 15 law.

16           SEC. 13. Non-diminution of Benefits. – All existing arrangements 17 between a caregiver and the employer shall be adjusted to conform to the 18 minimum standards set by this Act. The adjustment pertaining to wages shall 19 take effect immediately after the determination and issuance of the 20 appropriate wage order by the RTWPB. Nothing in this Act shall be 21 construed to cause the diminution or substitution of any benefits and 22 privileges currently enjoyed by the caregiver hired directly or through a PEA.

23           SEC. 14. Basic Necessities. – The employer shall provide for the basic 24 necessities of the caregiver to include at least three (3) adequate meals a day
25 and humane sleeping arrangement. They shall also provide appropriate rest 26 and assistance in case of illnesses and injuries sustained during service 27 without loss of benefits.

1           SEC. 15. Privileged Information. - All information and 2 communication pertaining to the patient or employer or members of the 3 household shall be treated as privileged and confidential, and shall not be 4 publicly disclosed by the caregiver during and after employment.

5           SEC. 16. Termination of Service. - Neither the caregiver nor the 6 employer may terminate the contract before the expiration of the term except 7 for grounds provided for in Sections 17 and 18 of this Act. If the caregiver is 8 unjustly dismissed, the caregiver shall be paid the compensation already 9 earned plus the equivalent of fifteen (15) days work by way of indemnity. If 10 the caregiver leaves without justifiable cause, any unpaid salary due not 11 exceeding the equivalent of fifteen (15) days work shall be forfeited. In 12 addition, the employer may recover from the caregiver costs incurred related 13 to the deployment expenses, if any: Provided, That the service has been 14 terminated within six (6) months from the caregiver's employment.

15           If the duration of the caregiving service is not determined either in 16 stipulation or by the nature of the service, the employer or the caregiver may 17 give notice to end the working relationship five (5) days before the intended 18 termination of the service.

19           The caregiver and the employer may mutually agree upon written 20 notice to preterminate the contract of employment to end the employment 21 relationship.

22           SEC. 17. Termination of Contract by the Caregiver. - The caregiver 23 may terminate the employment relationship at any time before the expiration 24 of the contract for any of the following reasons:

25           (a) Verbal or emotional abuse by the employer, client or any member 26 of the household;

27           (b) Inhuman treatment including physical abuse by the employer,
28 client or any member of the household;

1 (c) Commission of a crime or offense against the caregiver by the 2 employer, client or any member of the household;

3 (d) Violation of the terms and conditions of the employment contract
4 by the employer; and

5 (e) Other causes analogous to the foregoing.

6 SEC. 18. Termination of Contract by the Employer. – The employer
7 may terminate the services of the caregiver at any time before the expiration 8 of the contract for any of the following causes:

9 (a) Misconduct or willful disobedience by the caregiver of the lawful 10 order of the employer in connection with the former's work;

11 (b) Gross or habitual neglect or insufficiency in the performance of 12 duties;

13 (c) Fraud or willful breach of the trust reposed by the employer;

14 (d) Commission of a crime or offense by the caregiver against the 15 person of the employer, client or any immediate member of the employer's 16 family;

17 (e) Violation of the terms and conditions of the employment contract 18 by the caregiver;

19 (f) Any disease prejudicial to the health of the caregiver, the 20 employer, or members of the household; and 21 (g) Other causes analogous to the foregoing.

22 SEC. 19. Settlement of Disputes. – All labor-related disputes shall be 23 elevated to the DOLE Regional Office having jurisdiction over the workplace
24 without prejudice to the filing of civil or criminal action in appropriate cases.
25 The DOLE Regional Office shall exhaust all conciliation and mediation
26 efforts before a decision shall be rendered.

1 Ordinary crimes or offenses committed under the Revised Penal Code
2 and other special penal laws by either party shall be filed with the regular 3 courts.

4 SEC. 20. Protection of Caregiver Hired Through PEAs. – The 5 Secretary of Labor and Employment shall, through a system of licensing and 6 regulation, ensure the protection of the caregivers hired through PEAs.

7 The PEAs shall be jointly and severally liable with the employer for all 8 wages, wage-related benefits, and other benefits due to the caregiver.

9 The provisions of the Labor Code of the Philippines on the 10 qualifications of the PEAs with regards to nationality, net worth, owners and 11 officers, office space and other requirements, as well as the non-transferability 12 of license and the commission of prohibited practices, shall apply.

13 SEC. 21. Responsibilities of the PEAs. – In addition, the PEAs shall 14 have the following responsibilities:

15 (a) Ensure that the caregivers are not charged or levied any 16 recruitment or placement fees;

17 (b) Ensure that the employment agreement between the caregiver and 18 the employer stipulates the terms and conditions of employment and all the 19 benefits prescribed by this Act;

20 (c) Provide a preemployment orientation briefing to the caregiver and 21 the employer about their rights and responsibilities in accordance with this 22 Act;

23 (d) Keep copies of employment contracts and agreements pertaining to 24 recruited caregivers which shall be made available during inspections or 25 whenever required by the DOLE;

26 (e) Assist caregivers with respect to complaints or grievances against 27 their employers; and

1 (f) Cooperate with government agencies in rescue operations
2 involving abused or exploited caregivers.

3 SEC. 22. Implementing Rules and Regulations. – Within sixty (60)
4 days from the effectivity of this Act, the Secretary of Labor and Employment
5 shall, in coordination with the Director General of the TESDA, promulgate
6 the necessary rules and regulations for the effective implementation of this 7 Act.

8 SEC. 23. Separability Clause. – If any provision or part of this Act is 9 declared invalid or unconstitutional, the remaining parts or provisions not 10 affected shall remain in full force and effect.

11 SEC. 24. Repealing Clause. – All laws, decrees, orders, rules and 12 regulations and other issuances or parts thereof which are inconsistent with 13 the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed or amended accordingly.

14 SEC. 25. Effectivity. – This Act shall take effect fifteen (15) days after 15 its publication in the Official Gazette or in two (2) national newspapers of 16 general circulation.

Approved,
