SEC. 2. Declaration of Policy. – It is the policy of the State to promote agricultural development as a means to ensure food security and alleviate poverty. Towards this end, the State shall develop and operationalize a common framework for equitable, inclusive, and sustainable rural development through the convergence of the resources of the principal departments of the National Government concerned with rural development, namely the Department of Agriculture (DA), Department of Agrarian Reform (DAR), Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR), and the Department of Interior and Local Government (DILG). This convergence shall be implemented through a national convergence strategy.

SEC. 3. Guiding Principles. – The implementation of the National Convergence Strategy for sustainable rural development (NCS-SRD) is guided by the following principles:

a) The National Convergence Strategy is an institutionalized complementation strategy among the DA, DAR, DENR, and the DILG. The four (4) rural development departments shall work with other national line agencies and government-owned and controlled corporations (GOCCs), primarily the National Electrification Administration (NEA), National Irrigation Administration (NIA), and National Food Authority (NFA), the academe, donor agencies, international and local non-government organizations (NGOs), people's organizations (POs), and other relevant stakeholders to mitigate institutional coordination problems.

b) The complementation of resources and expertise of the DA, DAR, DENR, and the DILG, and local government units (LGUs) shall be the primordial consideration in the implementation of the National Convergence Strategy: Provided, that such collaborative activities shall not alter or impair the respective mandates of the DA, DAR, DENR, and the DILG;

- c) The primacy of the LGUs as the integrating and converging force for sustainable rural development at the local level shall be emphasized. The NCS-SRD shall aim to strengthen the LGUs into becoming sustainable economies;
- d) The National Convergence Strategy must have a defined constituency. Intervention following the ridge-to-reef strategy shall focus on smallholder farmers, both agrarian reform beneficiaries (ARBs), and non-ARBs, small fisherfolk, upland dwellers, and Indigenous Peoples (IPs);
- e) The participatory approach shall be adopted in all phases of development: planning and budgeting, implementation, monitoring and evaluation, reporting and knowledge sharing;
- f) The National Convergence Strategy shall be incorporated in all programs, projects and activities of the national government departments and concerned LGUs to enhance the complementation of resources and expertise of the DA, DAR, DENR, DILG, and LGUs;
- g) The National Convergence Strategy shall include relevant measures for an enabling environment to encourage investment by the private sector, cooperatives and other NGOs.

SEC. 4. Scope. – This Act shall apply to all rural development areas primarily inhabited by targeted beneficiaries, namely, the smallholder farmers, both ARBs and non-ARBs, small fisherfolk, upland dwellers, and IPs.

(e) Forest ecosystem refers to a dynamic complex of plant animal and micro-organism communities and their abiotic environment interacting as a functional unit, where trees are a key component and where humans, with their cultural, economic and environmental needs are an integral part of;

The ridge-to-reef strategy refers to the development approach where coastal and estuarine ecosystems are managed so human settlements in upland and forest areas, in middle and lowland areas, or in coastal areas, may use the resources therein to support livelihood and derive income therefrom in a sustainable manner, minimizing therefore damage to wetlands and marine environments. On the other hand, integrated area development refers to a development approach that considers the ecological, economic, political, cultural and human challenges and opportunities in a specific area.

For purposes of this Act, convergence area refers to the physical area that is selected according to a set of criteria mandated under Section 7 of this Act, and shall be developed according to a Convergence Area Development Plan (CADP) proposed by the LGU, and approved by the NCS-SRD Executive Board created under Section 10 of this Act.

SEC. 7. Criteria for Selection of Convergence Areas. – There shall be a set of mandatory and prioritization criteria that shall guide the identification and selection of a convergence area.
