AN ACT
PROVIDING FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT AND SUPPORT OF A DRUG ABUSE
TREATMENT AND REHABILITATION CENTER IN EVERY PROVINCE
THROUGHOUT THE PHILIPPINES AND APPROPRIATING FUNDS THEREFOR

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency (PDEA) reported that as of February 2022, a total of 331,694 suspects were arrested in the 229,868 drug war operations conducted since July 2016. Of the number of arrested individuals, PDEA reported a total of 15,096 high-value targets. Authorities have also seized illegal drugs worth PHP89.29 billion across the country, including PHP76.17 billion in shabu.

Much has been said about the drug menace and its capacity to destroy and wreak havoc on the lives of its victims. Measures are being taken to address the importance of fighting the proliferation of drug-related crimes. Many such measures are directed towards subduing the criminals responsible for these crimes. However, the elimination of drug-related crimes is merely one aspect of the two-pronged approach that must be taken in dealing with the effects of dangerous drugs. Apart from the fight for the nation's safety and security against the menace of illegal drugs, attention must also be directed towards the rehabilitation and recovery of its victims.

Drug dependents are victims of drug criminals and syndicates. They are people who have been preyed upon by opportunists seeking to take advantage of the downward spiral that inevitably takes place once drug addiction begins. Thus, drug dependents should be treated as victims in dire need of medical, psychological, and spiritual help, with a chance of being successfully reintegrated into society as a healthy and productive citizen.

While it is true that the national government has consistently centered its campaign against drugs on crime prevention and eradication, it has not lost sight of its duty to aid in the recovery of those whose lives have been destroyed by illegal drugs. The past administrations have shown equal concern for the rehabilitation and reintegration of drug dependents by directing the executive branch of the government to support the establishment of Drug Abuse Treatment and Rehabilitation Centers. In these places, drug dependents can pick up pieces of their lives that have fallen apart due to illegal drugs. The government has not fallen short on its efforts to reintegrate into society individuals who have fallen victim to drug abuse or dangerous drugs. Sustainable programs of treatment and rehabilitation have always been an integral part of the unrelenting campaign against illegal drugs.

Legislative measures are currently being taken to aid in the war against the drug menace. This measure, however, aims to show that there is an equally passionate desire to address the drug problem on all fronts, even those avenues where compassion and care serve as the best weapon.

If we are to completely succeed against the evils brought about by dangerous drugs, the fight must not stop with the elimination of drug criminals. Success can only be truly achieved once those afflicted are given a chance to win their lives back.

In view of the foregoing, the approval of this bill hereby is earnestly sought.
