AN ACT
MANDATING THE INCLUSION OF BARANGAY OFFICIALS WITHIN THE
COVERAGE OF THE GOVERNMENT SERVICE INSURANCE SYSTEM (GSIS), AMENDING FOR THIS PURPOSE REPUBLIC ACT NO. 8291 ENTITLED "THE GOVERNMENT SERVICE INSURANCE SYSTEM ACT OF 1997", AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippines is unique with its barangay government system. From the old system of barangay leadership in communities, the citizens learn to support one another in the achievement of their collective goals, resolve concerns and issues confronting them and foster the great sense of bayanihan that defines the Filipino way of life.

In the recent years, the barangay serves as the closest organized local unit for the people. They are in the first line of access in terms of delivering basic services. In the Local Government Code of 1991, the role of barangay officials is aptly recognized as they play the day-to-day operations of governance. They are active in providing round-the-clock security, threshing out the differences amongst neighbors in the Katarungang Pambarangay, enforcing of basic laws and policies, ensuring the safety of the Barangay, and other concerns, among others.

The bill seeks to augment the meager compensation and benefits enjoyed by the barangay officials by making them part and covered by the Government

Service Insurance System (GSIS), thereby amending Republic Act No. 8291 or the Government Service Insurance system Act of 1997. The inclusion of the barangay officials under the GSIS coverage is a benefit granted not only in recognition of the untold sacrifices and dedications of the thousands of barangay officials for the upkeep of their respective barangays.

Therefore, the swift approval of this measure is earnestly sought.
