AN ACT
BROADENING THE OPPORTUNITIES OF FILIPINO YOUTH BY ALLOWING GRADUATES OF K-12 ENHANCED EDUCATION IN THE PHILIPPINE NATIONAL POLICE, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE THE PNP LAW, R.A. 6975 AS AMENDED BY R.A. 8551

EXPLANATORY NOTE

As part of the efforts of the present administration to respond to the perceived needs of the education sector, the Department of Education (DepEd) had pushed for the implementation of the "Enhanced K to 12 Basic Education Program."¹

The k-12 enhanced education program was designed, among others, to solve the ballooning unemployment in the country by arming students with true mastery of basic competencies and necessary skills to enter into the work force.

Less than half of all high school graduates finish college and even less earn a baccalaureate degree due to financial constraints. Graduates of the k-12 program, however, were assured that they stand a chance even without a college degree.

This bill seeks to level the playing field for the children of poor families who cannot afford to send them to college by lowering the education requirement for police applicants.

Currently, the PNP, as mandated by Republic Act 8551, only accepts college graduates for recruits. Through this measure, graduates of the k-12 program may be admitted to the Philippine National Police (PNP), provided that the applicant passes all the examinations, including the entrance test administered by the National Police Commission.

Applicants are still required to adhere to the PNP's general qualifications, which include the height, weight and age requirement, among others.

Approval of this measure is earnestly sought.

GRACE POE
