EXPLANATORY NOTE

Article XV Section 4 of the 1987 Constitution stipulates that, "The family has the duty to care for its elderly members but the State may also do so through just programs of social security." Pursuant to this mandate, several laws promoting the welfare and benefits of senior citizens in the country including Republic Act No. 7342 entitled "An Act to Maximize the Contribution of Senior Citizens to Nation Building, Grants Benefits and Special Privileges"; Republic Act No. 9257, otherwise known as the "Expanded Senior Citizens Act of 2003"; and Republic Act No. 9994, or the "Expanded Senior Citizens Act of 2010".

Based on the 2020 Census of Population and Housing, there were 12,336,355 Filipinos aged 60 years old and above as of May 2020. This is 11.31% of the total population of the country. This shows that they comprise a significant portion of our population. Given their vulnerability, they deserve all the assistance and support from the government and all members of the society.

Unfortunately, there are unscrupulous perpetrators of wrongdoings that victimize senior citizens. Most of them take advantage of the benefits and privileges given to senior citizens and commonly, they are done through the internet, electronic mail and other advanced means of information and communication technology. Senior citizens are relatively less familiar with advanced technology which makes it easier for the culprits to accomplish their fraudulent activities through these means.

The "Senior Citizens' Fraud Education Act" seeks to establish a centralized service for consumer education for senior citizens, their families and caregivers, regarding mail, telemarketing and internet fraud that targets senior citizens. This will be implemented by the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI), in consultation with the Department of Justice (DOJ), the Department of Health (DOH) and the Philippine Postal Corporation.

This measure was reported out by the Committees on Trade, Commerce and Entrepreneurship; and Social Justice, Welfare and Rural Development in the 18th Congress.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this measure is highly recommended.
