

during the Japanese Occupation and paid with Japanese Military Notes, stated that the Ballantyne Scale shall be used in the redemption under Section 1. But when the bill was approved in its final form, no amendment to that effect was inserted. I took this up with the distinguished gentleman from Rizal and we agreed that when this bill goes to the Conference Committee, this matter should be taken up, and, subject to that condition, I vote yes.

Senador Cipriano P. Primicias	Sí.
" Gil J. Púyat	Sí.
" Claro M. Recto	Sí.
" Francisco Soc. Rodrigo	Ausente.
" Decoroso Rosales	Ausente.
" Pedro Sabido	Sí.
" Lorenzo Sumúlóng	Sí.
" Lorenzo M. Tañada	Sí.
" Jose C. Zulueta	Ausente.
El PRESIDENTE	Sí.

(El Secretario informa a la Mesa del resultado de la votación)

El PRESIDENTE. Por trece votos afirmativos, con una abstención, queda aprobado el proyecto en tercera lectura.

MOCIÓN PRIMICIAS

Senator PRIMICIAS. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 553 referring to the Namarco was referred to the Committee on National Enterprises, and Senate Bills Nos. 576 and 583 covering the same subject-matter was referred to the Committee on Commerce and Industry. In view of the fact that these three bills of the Senate cover a matter falling under the jurisdiction of both Committees, I ask that these three bills, with the agreement of both chairmen, Senators Alonto and Cea, be referred jointly to these two Committees so that they may study them together.

The PRESIDENT. If there is no objection, the motion is carried. (There was none.)

ORDEN ESPECIAL

Senator PRIMICIAS. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 582 and House Bill No. 1085 be included in the calendar for tomorrow.

The PRESIDENT. If there is no objection, the motion is carried. (There was none.)

LEVANTAMIENTO DE LA SESIÓN

Senator PRIMICIAS. Mr. President, I move to adjourn until tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

The PRESIDENT. If there is no objection, the session is adjourned until tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. (There was none.)

Eran las 11:50 a.m.