The President: The 65th session of the Senate is hereby called to order.

NATIONAL ANTHEM

Senator Rodolfo G. Biazon will lead us in prayer.

Everybody rose for the singing of the National Anthem.

After the singing, everybody remained standing for the opening prayer.

PRAYER

Senator Biazon.

Almighty Father:

We gratefully acknowledge Your presence among us. And we beseech You to be with us always even if, in Your perfect judgment, we are undeserving of Your goodness and Your love. For we humbly believe that without You, there is nothing we can do.

Almighty Father, we thank You for all Your blessings which You have, without fail and without any precondition, showered upon our nation. Thank You for our beautiful land, thank You for our freedom, thank You for our perseverance, fortitude and optimism.

Guide us, Almighty Father, in all our thoughts and in all our deeds. Bless the humble Members of this chamber whom You, through the Filipino people, have chosen to make laws which must reflect Your will. Touch our hearts that we may become Your worthy servants. Free our minds from the lure of power and fame so that only the genuine interests of our country become our overriding concern.

*Appeared after the roll call

**On official mission

Help us become instruments of Your peace so that we may be able to heal the wounds of division that continue to hurt our nation. Grant us the insight to see and appreciate the many things that unite us.

Let not prestige or authority make us detached from the suffering of hundreds of thousands of our poor brothers and sisters. Deliver us from the burden of selfishness so that we may learn to give more of ourselves to others.

Look not on our many human frailties. Rather, we implore You, Almighty Father, to consider that with Your sustaining grace we shall do more for Your greater honor and glory.

All of these we ask in the name of the Redeemer, Your son.

Amen.
